

GEOGRAPHY

A bitesize overview of the curriculum.

---

YEAR 1

- Physical topics include Ecosystems under stress and Water and Carbon Cycles.
- Human topics include Contemporary Urban Environments and Changing Places.
- An opportunity to complete a mooc - Introduction to Ecosystems.
- Residential fieldtrip to Slapton in Devon to gather primary data to create a case study.
- Taught skills include essay writing and analytical skills as well as how to effectively use and evaluate secondary data.

YEAR 2

- Complete two topics from Year 1.
- Completion of the final two topics - Coastal Systems and Landscapes and Global Governance.
- Completion of NEA - independent fieldwork investigation based around a topic of your choice.
- The opportunity to take part in essay writing competitions launched by the Royal Geographical Society.

WHAT SUBJECTS COULD I STUDY AT UNIVERSITY?

- Geography and International Development/Relationships
- Human Geography and Anthropology
- Physical Geography and Sustainable Development

WHAT CAREERS COULD THIS LEAD TO?

- Planning (urban, transport or recycling)
- Conservation (water or environment)
- Landscape Architecture

ENRICHMENT OPPORTUNITIES

- Geographical Society
- External Speakers (e.g Aid worker who has spent time in Nepal)
- Revision Sessions
- 1-1 Clinics